

Chicago Theatre Week: tickets $15 and $30

Carol

December 31,
2015

Chicago Theatre Week 2016 will take place February 11-21, 2016. Choose from more than 100 productions and sample the extraordinary range of theatrical offerings throughout Chicago.

Tickets go on sale January 5, 2016 at 10AM.

Tickets are available for purchase here. You'll have to select a show and click through until you are given the available discount dates, showtimes and discount code. Write all this information down before you click through to the site where you'll actually purchase the tickets since these sites will pull up all available performance dates not just the Theatre Week dates.

The last two years, over 100 shows offered value-priced tickets to performances during Theatre Week. Some theaters also included additional offers such as post-show discussions, free drinks, and coupons to attend future shows.

Here and below is a list of participating organizations. In order to get ready you may want to make a list of shows, dates and times you're interested in to prepare for when tickets go on sale.
