

REVIEW: A'Musing Myths at Actors Gymnasium Highly Recommended #ChilLPicksList #agyouthcircus

A'Musing Myths

Fall Youth Circus

Closing THIS WEEKEND!

ChilL Mama, Du-Jay and Sagezilla caught opening night and highly recommend checking out A'Musing Myths at Actors Gymnasium. It's a great, family friendly, all ages show, with a cast completely comprised of kids. The plot does work better if the audience has at least a rudimentary knowledge of Greek Mythology, so young kids might be a bit lost on the story line. But the colorful, creative circus arts make this a fun production for the whole family.

We're huge fans of shows that have a fleshed out plot instead of just free standing circus skills demos, and The Actors Gym excels at productions like that. A'Musing Myths doesn't have quite as much live music as past shows we've seen there, but it's still well worth checking out. We were particularly impressed with the multiple simultaneous silks and Spanish Web ropes in some of the bigger group aerial acts! Don't be surprised if your kids are inspired to enroll in Actors Gym classes once they see how much fun these kids are having and what stellar skills they've developed.

We love the melding of the classics and these familiar character archetypes with circus skills. The Greek Myths are given a vibrant, new twist with the introduction of aerial arts, unicycle and more. It's a small space so we highly suggest you get tickets in advance to guarantee seats. These show are very likely to sell out!

For group reservations and general questions call 847-328-2795. If online sales are sold out, a limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

Final 2 days!

November 16 & 17, 2013

Saturdays at 4:30 pm and 7:30 pm

Sundays at 3:00 pm

$15 for adult tickets!

$12.50 for children, students and seniors!

Have you bought your tickets yet?

A young girl who sacrifices love for the sake of the world. A fierce seamstress who dares flaunt her talents before the goddess of Arts & Crafts. That angry one with the snakes for hair. The gift of fire and the origin of man himself. Join us as Prometheus, our favorite Titan, recounts the origins of some of his favorite characters from mythic Greece.

The Members of The Actors Gymnasium's Fall Youth Circus Ensemble combine skills in circus, dance, clowning, and drama to delight us on adventures that span the heights of Mount Olympus, the depths of the Underworld, and every strange and imaginary place in between.

A'Musing Myths: Fall Youth Circus is written and directed by Chris Mathews with circus choreography by Sylvia Hernandez-DiStasi, dance choreography by Topeka Ellis, and assistant directed by David Corlew. Tickets will go quickly - so get yours today!

Tickets are available ONLINE only. Once online sales are closed, 1.5 hours prior to the show start time, the on-location box office will be open.

Go early. Things are a bit confusing due to building construction. Actors Gym tickets are on the far left side of the lobby as you enter and their performance space is on the far right. They have simplified things with actual tickets now.

Win:

Take part in our hashtag contest! Whoever has the most #agyouthcircus comments on Facebook and/or Twitter before November 19 will win a free black AG jacket OR $50 off their next session of classes (Your choice!). Posts must be relevant and on-topic.

