

Fun Things To Do on the North Shore Feb. 27 – Mar. 1

No time to sit and relax this weekend. It is jammed packed with high octane activities that will either have you moving from the onset or bring you to your feet with their entertainment prowess. The only hard part will be choosing what to do!

Harlem Wizards Charity Basketball Game

Feb. 27: 7 pm

Highland Park High School Main Gym, 433 Vine Ave., Highland Park

Watch as local coaches, teachers and other notables take on the Harlem Wizards for a fun night of laughs, entertainment, basketball, photo ops and charity. The Harlem Wizards show brings oohs, aahs, and serious laughter inspired by sky-high slams, hilarious humor, dynamic energy, fan participation, world class tricks and basketball wizardry. 50% of the proceeds will go to Bear Necessities Pediatric Cancer Foundation as part of HPHS's 2015 Charity Drive. Tickets available online at www.harlemwizards.com, at the HPHS bookstore or at the door the night of the event.

Princess and the Pea

Feb. 27: 8 pm, Feb. 28: 4:30 & 8 pm, Mar. 1: 1 & 5 pm

Marriott Theatre for Young Audiences, 10 Marriott Drive, Lincolnshire

Now through May 3, discover if an ordinary maiden, Prince Wellington's true love, can pass the "Princess Test" and live happily ever after. Based on the classic tale by Hans Christian Anderson, this one-hour musical presentation will delight kids and parents of all ages. For tickets, click here.

Little Sweethearts Family Dance

Feb. 28: 5:30 – 8 pm

Kohl Children's Museum, 2100 Patriot Blvd., Glenview

Get ready for a magical evening of fun and dancing for the entire family! Make special memories as your little ones and you kick up your heels at the Kohl Children's Museum first ever Little Sweethearts Family Dance. With plenty of rockin' tunes, mini-line dance lessons, and musical games in store, they're ready to get the party started! For more info. and tickets, click here.

Circuscope

Feb. 27: 7:30 pm, Feb. 28: 4:30 pm, Mar 1: 3 pm

The Actors Gymnasium at the Noyes Cultural Art Center, 927 Noyes St., Ste. #100, Evanston

Directed by spectacle-theatre veteran Vanessa Stalling and featuring acclaimed Chicago clown Dean Evans, Circuscope will transport audiences through surprising acrobatics, mime, live music and other-worldly design to a fascinating world on the other side of the microscopic lens. Playing through Mar. 22. For more info: click here.

River North Dance Chicago

Feb. 28: 8 pm

North Shore Center for the Performing Arts, 9501 Skokie Blvd., Skokie

In celebration of the company's 25th Anniversary, River North Dance Chicago's dancers offer an evening of unparalleled grace and talent in an amazing performance featuring selections from their standard repertoire and exciting new works. The Company is dedicated to the creative advancement, presentation and preservation of jazz-based contemporary dance. Founded in 1989, River North Dance has since grown to become an internationally-acclaimed company known for combining athletic prowess and artistic perspective with bold, theatrical flair. For tickets, click here.

CircEsteem/Screen Break Kick-off

Mar. 1: 3:30 – 5 pm

Washburne Gym, 515 Hubbard Rd., Winnetka

The kick-off event for this year's Screen Break, which encourage families to turn off their television sets and other video screens for seven days and experience together the adventure of a week with no screens, has families testing their circus skills with CircEsteem. CircEsteem is Chicago's premiere youth circus with a mission of uniting youth from diverse backgrounds and building self-esteem through the practice of circus arts. Interactive stations will include: Scarf juggling, plate spinning, gym wheel, tight wire, feather balancing, face painters and balloon artistry. For more info: click here.

North Shore Views is the most comprehensive online source for North Shore Chicago real estate and community information. Whether you are looking for market statistics, homes for sale or local events, North Shore Views has it all at your fingertips. Browse information regarding our communities, market data, luxury homes, lakefront property, schools and what you should know about making the move to the North Shore.